Monica and Ross are banking on Joey's lack of knowledge on a '70s sitcoms set in the '50s so they don't have to show their bathing suit areas to each other. It's a safe gamble. Joey doesn't know much about anything besides sandwiches, it seems. Still, it's a risk that no siblings should be willing to take.

Ross and Monica are example of a strong sibling relationship. For a brother and sister duo to remain ever so close all the way through their thirties is something to applaud. Friends showed the two as close in their older years compared to when they were children where the two had hated each other for getting on the other's nerve.
