The Monk: A Romance is a Gothic novel by Matthew Gregory Lewis, published in 1796. A quickly written book from early in Lewis's career (in one letter he claimed to have written it in ten weeks, but other correspondence suggests that he had at least started it, or something similar, a couple of years earlier), it was published before he turned twenty.. It is a prime example of the male Gothic ...

In front of the monk's university high on the hill, there were dozens of tents/yurts set up from a gathering a few days prior. A few yaks and horses wandered this area too. Where the road turned completely to dirt, and the only signs of activity was a couple of guys with a machine breaking and loading rocks, we head into the hills.
